

20 | ANNUAL 22 | REPORT

APRIL 2021-
MARCH 2022

MISSION: to transform lives and communities through adaptive climbing opportunities that defy convention.

VISION: Paradox Sports envisions a world with access to adaptive opportunities, which empowers individuals, builds communities, and honors the fact that ability does not prevent opportunity.

VALUES: Paradox Sports recognizes the power of community engagement, personal growth, compassion, dignity, having fun and irreverance for those who say we can't.

“ Such a healing experience that provided the essence of belonging. As I drop ice into my drink on this warm day, the stoke only rises with memories of fun and empowering times in Ouray. It's a source of happiness.”
-Trevor Hahn

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

FRIENDS,

As we reflect on yet another successful year of transforming lives and communities through adaptive climbing opportunities that defy convention, we are grateful for our community. These past years have been challenging, however, we had such incredible support from our community that we have emerged stronger than ever! We have reimagined how to deliver our industry leading adaptive climbing programs and how best to increase access to incredible climbing experiences for more people.

This past year we focused on returning to delivering our national trips, which are the heart and soul of our community. This past year we were able to return to full capacity and increase our mission impact. Our national rock and ice climbing trips are delivered in some of the most iconic locations across the United States. In 2021, we provided over 1,200 adaptive experiences nationally, which was an increase of 33% from the previous year. We delivered our nationally recognized climbing trips in five locations, serving over 24 volunteers and 60 adaptive athletes. As we look forward, we plan to grow our national trips, increasing access and equity to more individuals. Stay tuned!

As the industry leader in adaptive climbing training, our Adaptive Climbing Initiative continues to gain recognition as the adaptive climbing training. We continue to train climbing gyms, university programs, VA facilities and peer organizations in best practice with the goal of creating accessible climbing programs within their respective communities. Our staff trained over 137 climbing facilitators and 32 adaptive climbers across the country, which included providing opportunities for military veterans. Ultimately, working towards fulfilling our vision of a world with access to adaptive opportunities, empowered individuals, and communities where ability does not prevent opportunity.

This past year we also returned to delivering our much loved local programs. These programs serve our local Colorado climbers, leveraging the amazing local climbing and focusing on community building. We experienced a significant return to our bi-monthly indoor climbing meet-ups and outdoor educational programs. Last year we provided over 90 local experiences.

As we look to next year, we remain committed to building adaptive climbing communities and increasing access and opportunities. Our new 2022-2025 Strategic Plan will guide us as we pursue our goals of investing in people, growing programs, building strategic partnerships and focusing on compelling storytelling. Please join us on the journey of providing transformational adaptive climbing experiences to more people!

Sincerely,

Dave Elmore
Executive Director

Are you curious about taking part in a Paradox Sports Trip and wondering if you can hack it? The answer is yes, you can! You, yes YOU, can rest assured that no matter how you feel about your capabilities and preparation, Paradox Sports will ENSURE that you accomplish your goal. I had less than a week to prepare for the Grand Teton trip but the expert instruction I received gave me the confidence I needed to make the climb. Plus, you'll have the support of your teammates along the way, which is why I was able to reach the summit with a smile and an incredible feeling of accomplishment. Push yourself. TRUST that you have what it takes. Give yourself a chance and go for it! You will be rewarded.

GOT STUMP AWARD

2022 RECIPIENT: ERICH MEINIG

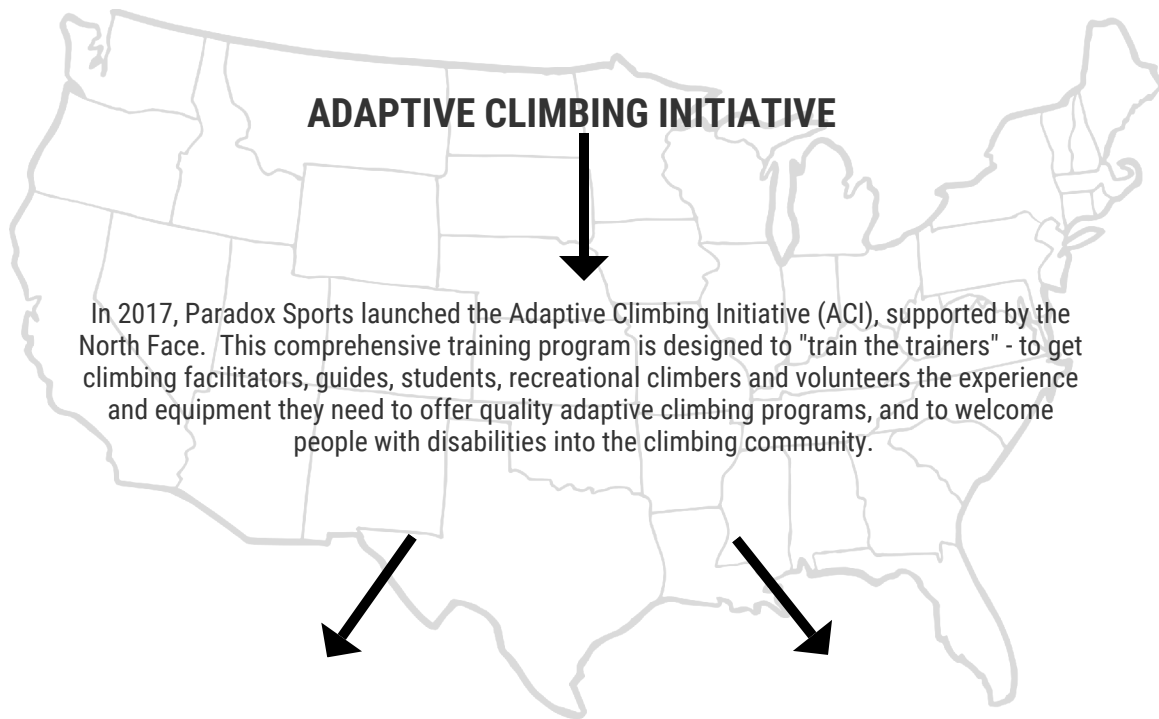

The Got Stump tradition all began in 2003, and has morphed over the years. What started as an auction for a stinky worn t-shirt by Malcolm Daly to raise money, has transitioned into an award honoring some of the best in our community.

Each year, the Got Stump Award celebrates an individual who is really setting the bar high for adaptive climbing and life, showing everyone what is possible with a disability, and encouraging others to get involved in the climbing community. The Got Stump recipient is a leader, mentor, advocate, and friend to everyone in the Paradox Sports community and greater adaptive climbing community. Congratulations to this year's recipient, Erich!

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Since 2007, Paradox Sports has paved the way or adaptive climbing and set industry standards for accessible climbing opportunities. Our programs consist of three main areas: Adaptive Climbing Initiative Courses, National Trips, and Local Programs (Colorado). We've thought long and hard about how we can have the biggest impact, how we can expand opportunities all over the country, and how we can build inclusive communities along the way.

Our National Trips have always been the heart and soul of our organization. These multi-day outdoor rock and ice climbing experiences are the best in the industry, and our participants join us year after year in some of the most spectacular and iconic climbing destinations in the country.

Our core annual National Trips include:

- Shelf Road | Rock Climbing | Colorado
- Yosemite NP | Rock Climbing | California
- Shawangunks | Rock Climbing | New York
- Rumney | Ice Climbing | New Hampshire
- Ouray Ice Park | Ice Climbing | Colorado

Our goal is to make every climbing gym and program in the country accessible to all abilities. Many people's first exposure to rock climbing is through a climbing gym. As climbing has recently grown in popularity throughout the United States, the sport is still not widely available to athletes with disabilities.

This is how we are able to exponentially grow our impact - by encouraging and empowering individuals and organizations who have completed an ACI Course to launch their own adaptive programs and establish frequent, recurring, local community events to expand opportunities with a grassroots approach.

THANK YOU

for joining us from California to New York and everywhere in between!

ADAPTIVE ADVENTURE FUND

In February 2020, Paradox Sports created the Adaptive Adventure Fund (AAF) to support the personal pursuits and climbing dreams of our adaptive community, to support those who are challenging the perception of what is possible with a disability, and want to push their vertical limits. AAF grants are awarded based on merit, demonstrated through the application process, to individuals with disabilities who have an adventurous spirit, a passion for perseverance, and who take the initiative to set ambitious climbing goals.
